

McCrea, that General Windham preferred the position of the previous evening, being taken up on the Bridge, and the Bithoor road defended. I consequently retired, leaving a Company of Her Majesty's 34th Regiment, to occupy the front line of broken down Native Infantry huts, and another Company in their support in a brick building about 100 yards to their rear. I then detached a Company of Her Majesty's 34th to the opposite side of the road across the plain in a line with the above support, to occupy a vacant house, to man the garden walls, and the upstairs verandah. These Companies formed a strong position, and quite commanded the whole road towards the Bridge. I halted at the Bridge with the remainder of the 34th and four Guns, and barricaded the road, and placed two Guns on the Bridge. I then sent two Companies of the 34th under Lieutenant-Colonel Simpson, to occupy the position he held the previous evening, to prevent the egress of the Enemy from the Town towards the entrenchment, as also to defend the road from Allahabad. This picquet I subsequently strengthened with two of my Guns which could not be worked on the Bridge.

A brisk fire was kept up by the Enemy from their position amongst the Native Lines on the advanced skirmishers and picquet, and upon the Bridge, by their Guns (18-Pounders) throughout the whole day. About mid-day Captain McCrea conveyed instructions to me to proceed to the front to attack the Enemy's Infantry and Guns, that he was to convey the same instructions to Her Majesty's 64th Regiment, and both parties to advance at the same time.

Captain McCrea took with him to strengthen the 64th, 40 men of a Company of Her Majesty's 82nd, which I had placed as a picquet at the old Commissariat compound, for the protection of the road leading from that direction to the entrenchment. I advanced with my two Guns and a Company of the 34th, from the Bridge, taking, as I advanced, the Company stationed to my right in the upstairs house, and the Company occupying the broken huts (with its support) on my left. On advancing and clearing the front line of huts, I was desirous, and endeavoured to push the whole of my party across the plain in front to charge the Enemy's Guns, but as their Infantry still occupied the broken ground of other huts, and my Force without support, it could not be done. The Enemy's Guns were driven far to the rear by the fire of my two Guns, after which my skirmishers, support, and right picquet, took up their original positions, and I returned with the Guns to the Bridge. Shortly after this, the Enemy's Infantry were seen to be skirting along the edge of the Town, with the evident intention of turning our flank, and of pouring a fire upon us from the houses on our left. Both picquet and skirmishers applied for re-inforcements which I could not afford, but desired them to hold their positions as long as possible, and then fall back to the head of the Bridge, which they did about 5 o'Clock.

The Enemy were now increasing in large numbers on our left, occupying houses, garden walls, and the Church. A Company was sent through the gardens to dislodge the Enemy, and drive them from the Church, but the Enemy were strong enough to maintain, or rather to return to their position. I then concentrated all my Force on both flanks of the Bridge, and with the Guns kept up a heavy fire. The Enemy now brought up a Gun into the Church-yard, which enfiladed the Bridge at a distance not exceeding 150 yards, my own Guns not being able to bear on their position.

The Enemy were still increasing and working round to my rear by my left flank. I retired the Guns about 100 yards so as to command the Bridge and the road leading from the Town. Officers and Men were at this time falling fast around me. I applied for a re-inforcement, but by the time they arrived night had set in, and I now considered it prudent to retire with the remainder of my Force into the entrenchment, which was done with perfect regularity, the re-inforcement of Rifles protecting the rear.

Although for some time earnestly advised to retire, I refrained from doing so until I felt convinced, that from the increasing numbers of the Enemy, the fatigue of the Men after three days' hard fighting, and my own Troops firing in the dark into each other, the position was no longer tenable, and that consequently it became my painful duty to retire.

I beg to forward a Return of the Killed and Wounded during the day.

Memorandum by the Chief of the Staff, upon Brigadier Carthew's retreat from his post, on 28th November 1857.

*Head Quarters Camp, Cawnpore,
The 9th December 1857.*

The Commander-in-Chief has had under consideration, Brigadier Carthew's Despatch, dated Cawnpore, 3rd December 1857, addressed to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Cawnpore Division.

Although His Excellency fully admits the arduous nature of the service on which Brigadier Carthew had been engaged during the 28th November, he cannot record his approval of that Officer's retreat, on the evening of that day.

Under the instructions of Major-General Windham, his Commanding Officer, Brigadier Carthew had been placed in position. No discretion of retiring was allowed to him. When he was pressed hard, he sent for re-inforcements, which, as the Commander-in-Chief happened to be present when the request arrived, His Excellency is aware were immediately conducted to his relief by Major-General Windham in person.

It would appear from Brigadier Carthew's letter of explanation, that he did not wait to see the effect of the re-inforcements which had been brought to him; but to the great astonishment of Major-General Windham and His Excellency, retired almost immediately after.

With respect to these occurrences, His Excellency feels it necessary to make two remarks:—

In the first place, no subordinate Officer, when possessing easy means of communication with his immediate superior, is permitted, according to the principles and usages of war, to give up a post which has been entrusted to his charge, without a previous request for orders, after representation might have been made that the post had become no longer tenable.

It might have occurred to Brigadier Carthew that when Major-General Windham proceeded to re-inforce the post according to his first request, instead of ordering the garrison to retire, it was the opinion of the Major-General, that to hold it was an absolute necessity.

His Excellency refrains from remarking on the very serious consequences which ensued on the abandonment of the post in question.

The night which had arrived was more favorable to the Brigadier for the purpose of strengthening his position than it was to an Enemy advancing on him in the dark; at all events there were many hours during which a decision could have been taken by the highest authority in the entrenchment whether the post should be abandoned or not, without much other inconvenience than the mere fatigue of the garrison.

The Commander-in-Chief must make one more remark.

Brigadier Carthew, in the last paragraph of his letter, talks about his men firing into one another in the dark. His Excellency does not see how this could occur if the men were properly posted, and the Officers in Command of them duly instructed as to their respective positions.

THE DEPY. ADJT. GENL. OF THE ARMY,

TO

THE SECY. TO THE GOVT. OF INDIA,
Military Department.
Head Quarters Camp, Cawnpore,
The 22nd December 1857.

SIR,

WITH reference to my Despatch of the 10th Instant, No. 20 A and its enclosures, relative to Brigadier M. Carthew's defence of the Bridge and Bithoor Road at Cawnpore, on the 28th ultimo, I have now the honor, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for submission to the Right

Hon'ble the Governor General in Council, copies of letters as per margin, marked A, B, and C.

2. When the Memorandum dated 9th Instant, was written, copy of which was transmitted in my letter No. 20 A, and in which

A From Brigadier M. Carthew to the Chief of the Staff, dated 15th December 1857.

B From the Chief of the Staff, to Major-General C. Windham, C. B., dated 19th December 1857.

C From Major-General C. Windham, C. B., to the Chief of the Staff, dated 19th December 1857.

the conduct of Brigadier Carthew was commented on by His Excellency, the Commander-in-Chief was under the strongest impression, that Brigadier Carthew had retired from his post, on the 28th November, without orders, and that no discretionary power had been given to him.

Sir Colin Campbell conceived it to be an imperative duty to mark what he considered to be a violation of one of the first principles of war.

3. It appears now, however, that His Excellency's impression was erroneous, and it is a matter of the sincerest regret to him, that his having acted under such erroneous impression should have been detrimental to Brigadier Carthew, and give pain to that meritorious Officer.

4. The Commander-in-Chief directs me to request that you will solicit the permission of his Lordship in Council, that his Memorandum of the 9th Instant, may be considered null and void, and if it should have been sent forward to the Government at Madras, he begs that this further correspondence may be despatched to the destination in justice to Brigadier Carthew.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

Cawnpore, 15th December 1857.

SIR,

WITH reference to your communication to me of the 9th December, conveying the remarks of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, regarding my retreat from the position I had been directed to defend by Major-General Windham, Commanding the Force, on the evening of the 28th November, I beg I may be permitted most respectfully to state, that I was under the full impression, that I had due authority from the Major-General to retire when the post became no longer tenable.

I received a verbal message during that day, either from the late Captain McCrea, or Lieutenant Budgeon, (I cannot recollect which) that when I could hold out no longer, I was to retire to the entrenchment, where Her Majesty's 64th Regiment was located.

I cannot call to mind receiving any express instructions to that effect from Major-General Windham himself, but I am under the impression that the Major-General, on the previous evening, made some such remark as "well Gentlemen, when we can hold out no longer we must retire to the entrenchment."

Under that impression I acted during the day and made my retrograde movement into the entrenchment in the evening, and I trust His Excellency will be able on this explanation, to exonerate me from blame and censure in that particular respect.

I have the honor to be, &c.

The 19th December 1857.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to enclose for your remarks, a letter received from Brigadier Carthew in answer to a Memorandum written by order of the Commander-in-Chief, and forwarded through you by the Assistant Adjutant General of the Army, conveying His Excellency's opinions on the retreat of that Officer, from the post entrusted to his charge, on the 28th November 1857, without, as His Excellency conceived, any discretion having been left him for such a movement on his part.

His Excellency would be much obliged to you to communicate to me for his information, your opinion as to whether Brigadier Carthew had reason to imagine, that a discretionary power was left to him in the exercise of his Command of the post in question, which could be interpreted in the sense implied in the enclosed letter.

His Excellency's impressions on this subject were founded on the fact of the general surprise displayed by yourself and others, at the abandonment of the post in question, after you had proceeded with the re-inforcements demanded some short time before, almost immediately after His Excellency's arrival in the entrenchment.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

TO

MAJOR-GENERAL MANSFIELD,

Chief of the Staff.

Cawnpore, the 19th December 1857.

SIR,

IN answer to your communication of to-day, I have the honor to state, for the information of His Excellency, that I think Brigadier Carthew has made a fair representation of my views.

On the night of the 27th at a general meeting of the Superior Officers, I thought it my duty to hold as much of the Town as I could, as we might expect a large number of Women and Children, sick and wounded, to arrive shortly, that it would be cruel to shut them all up in the Fort, even if were* possible.

Therefore I was resolved, that every one should hold on as long as possible, and if obliged to fall back, they could but come to the Fort at last.

In the plan of defence, we abandoned the centre of the City, thinking it too cramped and narrow in its streets for the Enemy to enter with his big Guns.

When I took down the detachment of Rifles to Brigadier Carthew's assistance, I observed it was a sharp fight and immediately went and ordered Lieutenant-Colonel Watson and 2 Companies 82nd to go to him, and saw him on the Road there.

I was in hopes this Force would have prevented the necessity of his retiring, which was the cause of my being surprised at it.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

CALCUTTA COLLECTORATE;

Notification.

NOTICE is hereby given, that land in the immediate vicinity of the Railway Station at Allahabad has been set apart, under the Orders of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, for disposal, on building leases, to persons who are desirous of erecting Hotels and Shops for the sale of European Goods, or other buildings for Public convenience and accommodation, upon the conditions hereinafter set forth.

The land so set apart is intended to form part of the new Civil Station, and will not be within, or subject to the Laws relating to the Military Cantonment.

The land will be leased in plots of 3 acres each. About 40 such plots will be immediately available.

Each plot will have a frontage of 300 feet on a Public Road, and access will also be provided to the back of the premises by side lanes, as shown in the plan filed in the Office of the Commissioner of Allahabad.

As it is the present intention of the Government that Allahabad shall be the seat of the Government of the North-Western Provinces, and that a large Force of European Troops shall be stationed there, it has been resolved to allot the land falling within its proposed boundary, on a comprehensive and uniform plan.

The location of Shops and Hotels in one quarter, close to the Railway Station, and the appropriation of another part of the land for dwelling houses, form a portion of the general scheme for laying out the new Cantonment and new Civil Station of Allahabad; and in disposing of the leases of plots for the erection of dwelling houses, the exact localities and arrangements for which will be determined and notified hereafter, the conversion of houses into shops, or the use of them for purposes other than those of dwelling house, without previous special permission from the Government, or its authorized representatives, will be strictly guarded against.

Priority of choice in the selection of sites will be given to applicants who undertake the erection of Hotels.

Plots for which more than one application may be received will be put up to auction, and the lease disposed of to the highest bidder.

The Lessees will hold the land directly and solely from the Government.

The following are the conditions under which leases will be granted:—

1. The lease to be granted by the Government for fifty years, or for such shorter period as may be agreed on, such lease to be renewable at the expiration thereof, for a further period of fifty years, at the pleasure of the lessee, to be notified to the Government within six months before the expiration of the former lease.

2. In case of renewal, the new lease to be at the same rent as the original lease, but to be subject to such conditions, not involving the payment of any fine or additional rent, as may then seem equitable to the Government.

3. The ground to be subject to an annual rent of 30 Rupees per acre, to be paid to the Government.

4. Leases may be transferred, or the land or a portion thereof may be sub-let by private arrangement, on the transferee or sub-lessee being approved of by the Government, entering into engagements with the Government to abide by the terms of the original lease, but not otherwise. For the registration of such engagement, a fee of Rupees 16 will be required.

5. The Lessee of the original lease will be required to specify the object with which the lease is taken by him, to state approximately the expenditure he is prepared to incur, and to bind himself to commence, within one year from the time of receiving possession of the land, and to complete within three years from that date, a building adapted to the purpose specified, and of the value approximately specified, failing which he will be liable to a penalty not exceeding 500 Rupees for either default, and to the forfeiture of his lease.

6. The said building is to be constructed, as far as regards the outer walls thereof, in accordance with a general design to be submitted to and approved of by the Secretary to the Government of the North Western Provinces, or by some Officers authorized by the Government for that purpose.

7. Lessees will be bound, under a penalty of Rupees 500, not to make use of the buildings erected by them for any other purpose than that which is set forth in their engagement, unless previous permission to do so shall have been obtained from the duly constituted representative of the Government of the North Western Provinces, and recorded by him in the Register of Leases.

8. If a Lessee shall continue to apply the buildings to any use not originally specified in his lease, after the penalty above mentioned has been incurred, or shall be guilty of a repetition of the breach of covenant, his lease shall be forfeited to the Government.

9. Lessees will be subject to all rates and taxes imposed for Municipal purposes, by any duly constituted Authority in that behalf, and to all Rules and Regulations of Police and Conservancy passed in like manner.

10. Lessees will not be at liberty, without permission of the Chief Civil Authority at Allahabad, or of some person authorized by him in that behalf, to construct, or permit the construction, of any building or shed made of, or thatched with grass, reeds, or other inflammable materials, unless such thatch or inflammable material be protected by a covering of tiles, or other incombustible material, and in case of any violation of this Rule, the Magistrate shall be at liberty to cause such building, shed, or roof, or covering of thatch, or other inflammable materials, to be pulled down after twelve hours' notice to the Lessee.

11. Upon the expiration of the original term granted by the lease, if not renewed, or of any further term, the Lessee or person then entitled to the lease will be entitled to remove, for his own benefit, the materials of all buildings erected upon the premises by himself, or any previous Lessee, unless the Government shall desire to take over such buildings, or any part thereof, in which case the Government shall be at liberty to take over the same at a valuation, such valuation to be made in case of difference by two arbitrators, one to be selected by either party, or in case of difference between the arbitrators, by an umpire to be appointed by them.

12. In case of forfeiture, the Government shall be entitled to take over the buildings erected on the said land without any compensation.

13. Applicants showing cause for requiring more extensive premises, will be allowed to take the lease of two or more plots.

No. 742 of 1858.—The following Notification, issued from the Home Department with the Governor General, is published in General Orders:—

No. 109, the 30th April 1858.—It is the melancholy duty of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, to announce the death of that most distinguished Officer, Captain Sir William Peel, K. C. B., late in Command of Her Majesty's Ship Shannon, and of the Naval Brigade in the North-Western Provinces.

Sir William Peel died at Cawnpore on the 27th Instant, of Small-pox. He had been wounded at the commencement of the last advance upon Lucknow, but had nearly recovered from the wound, and was on his way to Calcutta, when struck by the disease which has brought his honorable career to an early close.

Sir William Peel's services in the field during the last seven months are well known in India and in England. But it is not so well known how great the value of his presence and example has been, wherever, during this eventful period, his duty has led him.

The loss of his daring but thoughtful courage, joined with eminent abilities, is a very heavy one to his Country; but it is not more to be deplored than the loss of that influence, which his earnest character, admirable temper, and gentle kindly bearing exercised over all within his reach; an influence, which was exerted unceasingly for the public good, and of which, the Governor General believes that it may with truth be said, that there is not a man of any rank or profession, who, having been associated with Sir William Peel in these times of anxiety and danger, has not felt and acknowledged it.

No. 743 of 1858.—The following Proclamation issued in the Province of Oude, by order of the Governor General of India in the month of March, and published in the Foreign Department with the Governor General, under date the 30th April 1858, is re-published in General Orders:—

Proclamation.—The Army of His Excellency the Commander-in Chief is in possession of Lucknow, and the City lies at the mercy of the British Government, whose authority it has for nine months rebelliously defied and resisted.

This resistance, begun by a mutinous soldiery, has found support from the inhabitants of the City, and of the Province of Oude at large. Many who owed their prosperity to the British Government, as well as those who believed themselves aggrieved by it, have joined in this bad cause, and have ranged themselves with the Enemies of the State.

They have been guilty of a great crime, and have subjected themselves to a just retribution.

The Capital of their Country is now once more in the hands of the British Troops. From this day it will be held by a Force which nothing can withstand, and the authority of the Government will be carried into every corner of the Province.

The time then has come at which the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India deems it right to make known the mode in which the British Government will deal with the Talookdars, Chiefs, and Landholders of Oude, and their followers.

The first care of the Governor General will be to reward those who have been steadfast in their allegiance at a time when the authority of the Government was partially overborne, and who have proved this by the support and assistance which they have given to British Officers.

Therefore, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General hereby declares that Drighyeye Singh, Raja of Bulrampore, Koolwunt Singh, Raja of Pudnaha, Rao Hurdeo Buksh Singh, of Kutiaree, Kashee Purshad, Talookdar of Sissaindee, Zubr Singh, Zemindar of Gopal Khair, and Chundee Lal, Zemindar of Moraon (Baiswarah) are henceforward the sole hereditary proprietors of the land which they held when Oude came under British Rule, subject only to such moderate assessment as may be imposed upon them; and that these loyal Men will be further rewarded in such manner, and to such extent, as upon consideration of their merits and their position, the Governor General shall determine.

A proportionate measure of reward and honor, according to their deserts, will be conferred upon others in whose favor like claims may be established to the satisfaction of the Government.

The Governor General further proclaims to the people of Oude, that, with the above-mentioned exceptions, the proprietary right in the soil of the Province is confiscated to the British Government, which will dispose of that right in such manner as to it may seem fitting.

To those Talookdars, Chiefs, and Landholders, with their followers, who shall make immediate submission to the Chief Commissioner of Oude, surrendering their arms and obeying his orders, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General promises, that their lives and honor shall be safe, provided that their hands are not stained with English blood murderously shed. But as regards any further indulgence which may be extended to them, and the condition in which they may hereafter be placed, they must throw themselves upon the justice and mercy of the British Government.

To those amongst them who shall promptly come forward; and give to the Chief Commissioner their support in the restoration of peace and order, this indulgence will be large, and the Governor General will be ready to view liberally the claims which they may thus acquire to a restitution of their former rights.

As participation in the murder of Englishmen or English women will exclude those who are guilty of it from all mercy, so will those who have protected English lives, be specially entitled to consideration and leniency.

1. They will visit every station in their divisions at least once in every year, remaining at each only long enough to accomplish the task of enquiry, with that strict and close scrutiny and minuteness indispensable to render it effectual and valuable to the Public Service.

2. They will prepare, on the spot, and forward monthly, reports of the result of their inspections in the form of an official diary, despatching them to the Director General of the Medical Department in the first week of the succeeding month.

3. They will carefully examine the books of Superintending Surgeons and Hospital Registers, and other Records of executive Medical Officers, and countersign them at the time of examination, (entering the date) in approval of the manner in which they have been kept.

4. It will be their duty to report to the Director General on the official acts, and aptitude for the performance of their general duties, of Superintending Surgeons, and on the personal qualifications and characters of all executive Medical Officers.

5. The Inspectors General as well as Superintending Surgeons will make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the professional qualifications, character, and temper of every Officer in the Department, of whatever rank or denomination; and report fully, and without reserve, the result of their personal observations, for the information of the Head of the Department, and for record in his Office. Besides remarking on the zeal and successful diligence and general professional efficiency of the Officers and Subordinates of the Department, they will bring to notice the peculiar turn or bent of mind or study, or special aptitude for any branch of the Service, directly or collaterally professional, that may be manifested by individuals. Should the Inspectors General see ought to disapprove of in the conduct of any person under their supervision, they will at once take such notice of it, by counsel or admonition, as it may appear to demand,* and report fully the circumstances of every case of the kind to the Director General, intimating to the person concerned that they are about to make such report, and forwarding any letter of explanation that the person may wish to place on record with the Report. It will be the duty of the Director General to sift the affair, so as to be able, when called upon, to place the case before higher Authority in a clear light.

6. On visiting stations, the Inspectors General will communicate freely with the local Authorities on all professional and sanitary questions;—that, should the case be more than ordinarily urgent, and should their recommendations be approved of, the necessary steps may be taken at once, or, on the other hand, that opportunity may be afforded of laying before higher Authority the reasons for declining to adopt or act on their views. Their presence at a station should be taken advantage of for the investigation in Committee of such matters, and in their absence, their opinion upon these questions may be obtained in writing.

7. In visitation, they will diligently investigate all matters affecting the public health, (furnishing their own topographical descriptions of all new stations) reporting, in full detail, on all that is faulty in the site, construction, conservancy, &c. of public buildings provided for the accommodation of Troops, Prisoners, Paupers, Sick and Insane Patients, submitting such suggestions as in their judgment may appear calculated to remedy such defects.

8. The duties of Superintending Surgeons, as laid down in Chapter 11, Medical Regulations will continue to be scrupulously performed. The rules laid down in Clause 5 of the present order, with regard to the duty of reporting upon the conduct, qualifications, and characters of Medical Officers and Subordinates within their Circles of superintendence, will also be rigidly adhered to. They will arrange, in concert with the Inspector General of their division, to make their Circuits so, that both may not visit the same station at the same time.

The 1st May 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, copy of a Despatch dated 20th Ultimo, from Brigadier-General J. Jones, C. B., Commanding Roorkee Field Force, detailing the successful operations of the Force under his Command from the 13th to the 19th Idem.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. W. NORMAN, Major,

Depy. Adj. Genl. of the Army.

FROM

BRIGADIER-GENERAL J. JONES, C. B.,

Comdg. Roorkee Field Force,

TO

THE ASST. ADJT. GENL. OF THE ARMY.

Camp Najeebabad, 20th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward a detailed statement of my operations, of which His Excellency has been informed by Telegram.

On the 13th Instant I arrived at Roorkee, and assumed Command of the Field Force. On that evening I despatched a party, as per margin, under Major Churchill, 60th Rifles, to Kunkhul, for the protection of the Bridge which the Engineers were there throwing over the Ganges. The Head Quarters 60th Rifles arrived on the 14th by forced marches, and on the 15th the Column encamped by the Bridge-of-Belts. The heavy Guns and Stores had been sent to the ford opposite Nagul, and Major Smyth was ordered to divert the Enemy's attention by making a show of crossing there.

Artillery—2 Guns.
Cavalry—1 Squadron.
Infantry.
60th Rifles, 2 Companies.
17th Panjab Native
Infantry,—Wing.

On the 17th, I crossed the river and moved into the forest in the following order :

Advance Guard.

One Company 60th Rifles, in skirmishing order.
One Company 60th Rifles, in support 2 Guns.
Sappers and Miners and a Troop of Cavalry.

Main Body.

One Troop Cavalry, Captain Austin's Battery.
60th Rifles, Punjaub Infantry Brigade.
Ammunition and Treasure, the Mooltanee Regiment of Cavalry.

Rear Guard.

One Company Punjaub Infantry; a Troop of Cavalry.

On each flank of the main body was a patrol of a Company Native Infantry, and a half Troop of Cavalry.

The Force had moved about four miles into the forest when the Advance Guard discovered the Enemy. The thick jungle rendered it difficult to make out his position, and impossible to tell his strength.

Major Muter, (Deputy Assistant Adjutant General), in Command of the Advance Guard, judiciously seized on an adjoining height, on which he posted a Company of the Rifles, and bringing up the Cavalry and Guns of the Guard, commenced the action.

I ordered Captain Cureton's Horse, and Captain Austin's Guns, to the front at the gallop, and forming the Infantry into line with their proper supports, and the flanks covered by skirmishers, advanced on the Enemy, making out his position by the fire of his Artillery.

The Rebels, defeated in their intention of effecting a surprise, and disconcerted by the destructive fire of the Artillery and Rifles, and the charge of a Troop of the Mooltanee Regiment of Cavalry led by Lieutenant Gostling, 5th Cavalry, on his left flank, drew back his Guns and retired before the imposing force advancing upon him.

I seized the opportunity, and at once pushed on the Cavalry and Artillery. No time was given the Enemy to take up another position. He was charged by Captain Cureton, wherever he attempted to stand, and the Guns, unlimbering as they came up, opened with shrapnel. The Enemy, thus pushed over positions of great natural strength, and unable to show front even on the bank of a stream where he had erected stockades, and behind which his Camp was pitched, fell more and more into confusion. His retreat became a flight; Gun after Gun was abandoned, and in utter rout the Rebels fled through the forest, leaving the ground covered with their arms, and throwing off even their clothes to facilitate their escape. Fully two hundred of their dead were left in the Terai, and four pieces of their Artillery were taken on the road, with all their ammunition and camp equipage.

When clear of the Terai, I pitched my Camp about five miles from Nagul, from which place information soon reached me, that the Enemy had retreated, leaving his Camp standing. I gave immediate orders for the passage of the river by the heavy Guns and Stores.

On the 18th, the Force moved in the same order as on the preceding day to Nujeeabad.

When near the Town, I sent forward a party to reconnoitre under Brigadier Coke, C. B., and halted the Column in the concealment of a tope of trees. The Town was deserted, and the Brigadier found, on pushing on to the Fort of Phutteghur, that it had also been evacuated by the Enemy. The Cavalry, following in pursuit, came up with their Infantry, and cut up about thirty of their number.

Two Guns were taken in the Town and six in the Fort, besides large quantities of grain, hammered shot and ammunition, a Return of which I enclose.

I am happy to say that the Casualties attending these operations, have been trifling. I annex a Return.

The behaviour of the Troops in the action of the 17th, was all His Excellency could wish. Young Regiments acted like Veteran Soldiers, and the difficult nature of the ground (a jungle, the residence of wild beasts only,) applied no mean test to their discipline and drill.

I beg to bring to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, the very able assistance afforded me by Brigadier Coke, C. B., in the Field, in Council, and in his intimate knowledge of the native character.

The Mooltanee Regiment of Cavalry was led by Captain Cureton and his Officers, in the most gallant and dashing style, and I trust His Excellency will notice this.

The manner in which Captain Austin brought his Guns into action, notwithstanding the difficulty of the ground, and the thickness of the jungle, afforded me the highest satisfaction.

Much praise is due to Major Palmer, Commanding 1st Battalion 60th Rifles, for bringing his Men so steadily and rapidly to the front. Also to Major Gordon, Commanding 1st Seikh Regiment, to Captain Larkins, 17th Regiment Punjaub Infantry, and to Captain Lambert, of the 1st Punjaub Regiment, for the able way in which they moved their Corps.

My thanks are due to Captain H. Drummond, Commanding Field Engineer, who afforded me much assistance; to Captain Carter also, Officiating Deputy Commissary General, and to Surgeon Innes, Field Surgeon, for their unfailing zeal.

I have received every assistance from my personal Staff, and I am much indebted for their exertions.

To Major Muter, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, to Captain Teddie, Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master General, and to Lieutenant H. Deedes, Aid-de-Camp, these acknowledgements are due.

I have, &c.,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter, No. 2173, dated the 21st Ultimo, on the subject of Notices of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants sent to your Office.

2. It appears that your Office makes deductions on account of Leave of Absence only from the Salaries of those Uncovenanted Servants who receive their appointments direct from Government; but that in all cases in which Clerks and other Ministerial Officers are allowed Leave of Absence, the Head of the Department or Office in which they are employed is left to make the deductions, your Office simply passing the Salary Abstract of such Establishment, without taking cognizance of the deductions made therein by the Head of the Department or Office, provided the Rule laid down in the Financial Resolution of the 18th December 1843 is not infringed.

3. In reply, I am desired to inform you, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the practice of your Office is incorrect. The Rules of the 22nd February 1856, he observes, are applicable to "All Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government who may be in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards," and it seems to His Lordship in Council that your Office ought invariably to make the deductions provided for in the Rules, in every case in which Leave is granted to such Officers under the rules, whether it be granted by Government, or by Officers to whom power to act upon the Rules may have been delegated by Government.

4. In respect to Officers drawing Salaries of less than Rupees 100 a month, it has been ruled, in the Financial Resolution of the 6th February 1857, that the Heads of Offices should, in granting Leave, be guided by the spirit of the Rules prescribed for those servants who are in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards, and that all cases in which Leave is so granted to Uncovenanted Servants whose Salaries are less than Rupees 100 per month, shall be reported to the Civil Auditor and the Military Auditor General, respectively, in the manner prescribed in the Orders of the 25th July last; viz., that the Auditors should be furnished, on the 1st May in each year, with "An Annual Return showing the Leave of Absence granted during the year (preceding), under the new Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, to those Uncovenanted Servants whose Leave might not have been notified in the Gazette."

5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Offices of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported monthly (instead of annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin; the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all Absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of Rupees 100 a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than Rupees 100, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

Camp Captaingunge, Goruckpore District,

The 1st May 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward to you, for submission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, the accompanying Report, dated 30th April, from Major Cox, Commanding Left Wing Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, reporting to me the complete success of the Detachment I sent out under his Command, on the 29th Ultimo, to dislodge and disperse about 1,000 Sepoys and other Rebels who had assembled at Nuggur, six or seven miles South-East from Camp, but without Guns, and about the same distance from Bustee. It was necessary this should be done without delay, as from the reports received by the Commissioner, Mr. Wingfield, there was great probability of the Rebels at Nuggur being joined by a considerable force, with Guns, from Tanda. We learnt yesterday morning, that this was intended, and that the Rebels from Tanda were to have joined those at Nuggur on the night of the 29th April. A Karinda or Agent of the Nuggur Rajah, was at the head of the body of Rebels at Nuggur.

2. The two silk colors captured by the Seikhs are partly native, but the pike heads and tassals appear to be Regimental. One Native color was taken by the Men of the Naval Brigade, and another by Deputy Magistrate, Shekh Kairoodeen, who shot the Rebel with his pistol, who was carrying it away. A quantity of powder and ammunition and a number of ponies, and other property were captured. About 100 of the Enemy were killed and wounded. I am very glad to say we have only three Men wounded.

3. The expedition has been very ably and most successfully carried out by Major Cox, Commanding the Detachment, and the Officers and Men of all arms behaved admirably, and with great zeal and gallantry.

4. The Commissioner, Mr. Wingfield, accompanied the Detachment, and afforded Major Cox valuable assistance.

5. I beg to recommend all engaged to the most favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, Viscount Canning.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedt. Servant,

F. ROWCROFT, Brigadier,
Comdg. Sarun Field Force.

FROM MAJOR J. W. COX,
13th Light Infantry.
To
BRIGADIER ROWCROFT,
Comdg. Field Force.
Camp Captaingunge, 30th April 1858.

SIR,
AUTHENTIC information having yesterday morning been received, that a body of the Enemy, about 1,000 strong (half of them being Sepoys,) were posted at and about the Town of Nuggur, seven miles from our Camp; I have the honor to report, that in compliance with your orders, I started to dislodge them at 1 P.M. with a Force as per margin.
The intelligence procured from villagers on the road, corroborated our information both as to the numbers and position of the Enemy; and on approaching, we found them in occupation of the Town, and partially ruined Fort of Nuggur, which is situated at the extremity of a dense bamboo jungle, about two miles in length, the jungle being bordered by a large lake with swampy ground about it; on the further extremity of the Town, there are thick groves of trees, which as well as the bamboo jungle, were occupied by the Enemy.
By making a slight detour, we kept the jungle about half a mile on our right as we advanced, covered by a flanking party of the 13th and the Seikhs who skirmished with the Enemy, and kept them back until the Column came opposite the Town and Fort.

I then halted, and wheeled into line to the right, while I directed the two Guns and Rocket to take up a position on a slight rise of ground 500 yards from the Town, and sent the Cavalry round beyond the groves, to intercept any Force which might escape in that direction.
The Guns and Rocket under Lieutenant Grant, Royal Navy, then opened, with precision and effect, and after about 40 Shells and Rockets had been thrown, the Enemy's fire began to slacken; I then sent orders for the Guns to cease firing, directed Captain Kerr's Company of the 13th and the Seikhs to clear the groves beyond the Town, wheel to their right and enter from that side, while the remainder of the Naval Column gallantly led by Lieutenant Pym, R. M., Light Infantry, and the Goorkhas by Captain Barclay having arrived within 100 yards, we made a simultaneous advance on the Town and Fort which was completely successful; the Enemy were driven through both Town and Fort, some of them being killed in houses which they ineffectually attempted to defend, and were pursued for a considerable distance into the swamps and jungle, leaving 40 or 50 dead on the field.

As soon as we had got possession of the Town, I sent orders for the Cavalry to pass round to the rear, and endeavour to intercept the Enemy in their retreat; this was promptly done by Captain Jenkins, but the extremely unfavorable nature of the ground, prevented him from cutting off many of the fugitives.

Four standards were captured during the day, two of them being handsome silk colors, we also found a quantity of powder and ammunition, and a large number of baggage animals, with other property.

The conduct of the whole of the Troops was excellent, and they were ably and gallantly led by their respective Commanding Officers.

Mr. Wingfield, (the Civil Commissioner,) accompanied me during the action, and I feel much indebted for the valuable and accurate information he afforded me; he was also good enough to convey my orders to the Cavalry, and guide them to the position I wished them to take up.

Lieutenant Leet, 13th Light Infantry, acted as Staff Officer on the occasion, to my entire satisfaction.

I beg to enclose a Return of Casualties which I am glad to say, are not of a serious nature.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

HEAD QUARTERS CAMP,
Furreedpore, 4th May 1858.

FROM

BRIGADIER-GENL. SIR E. LUGARD, K. C. B., Commanding Azimgurh Field Force.

To

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,
Camp Mhow, 25th April 1858.

SIR,

In my Report of the 16th Instant, I had the honor to acquaint you, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that in consequence of the Rebels under Koer Sing having taken up a strong position at "Azimutghur," I had reinforced the pursuing Column, and placed the whole under the Command of Brigadier Douglas, C. B.

2. This Force then consisted of the details as per margin, which 3 Guns E. Troop, Royal Horse Artillery. 4 Guns Major Cotter's Battery 2 5/8-inch Mortars. 1 Squadron Military Train. 2 Squadrons Sikh Cavalry. 1 Wing 37th Foot. 84th Regiment. Detachment Punjaub Sappers.

3. The remainder of the Field Force, including the heavy Guns, Park, &c., I retained under my immediate Command in Camp at Azimgurh, which place I considered it was necessary to hold strongly for the present, and to remain there myself, as a strong body of Rebels under the Rajahs of Nuhurpoor and Naneejor (who formed a portion of Koer Sing's Force before Azimgurh,) had gone in a northerly direction towards Oude; scattered portions also of Gholam Hossein's force, which I had dispersed at Tigra, were known to be near Sandah; and other parties of Rebels were reported to be collecting in the vicinity of Mundoree and Koelser, whilst Benares had been denuded of Troops to assist in the operations against Koer Sing. Thus the central situation of Azimgurh enabled me to watch the proceedings of the Rebels north of it, to cover Benares and Ghazeepore, and to direct and control the combined movements in pursuit of Koer Sing.

4. At daybreak on the 17th Instant, Brigadier Douglas, in obedience to my instructions, attacked the Rebels near Azimutghur, drove them from their position with much slaughter, and followed them to Ghosee, whence they fled to Nugra, and thence to Secunderpore, closely pursued by the Brigadier.

5. On reaching Secunderpore on the 19th, it was found that the Rebels had proceeded but a few hours, with the intention of crossing the Gogra, as soon as he possible could, the Brigadier followed, and at daybreak of the 20th instant, came up with them at "Muneer Khass," and taking them by surprise, killed and wounded a great many, captured a brass 9-Pounder Gun, complete with limber, horses, &c., two ammunition waggons, several elephants, horses and bullocks, with 20 carts laden with stores, harness, &c., and dispersed the main body, the bulk of which fled towards Bulliah and Beyreah.

6. Nineteen elephants were separated from the Rebel Force during this attack, and making their way to Ghazeepore, were handed over to the Magistrate there by the Native in charge.

7. Colonel Cumberlege who had been posted at Mhow to cover Ghazepore, and co-operate with the pursuing Force, was duly warned and directed to move towards Bulliah, and endeavour to intercept the fugitives.

2 Guns 6-Pounder.
2 Battery Guns.
50 Men 2nd Dragoon Guards.
180 " 4th Madras Cavalry.
300 " Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry.
100 " 10th and 97th Foot.
100 " Madras Rifles.

8. No time was lost by Brigadier Douglas in renewing the pursuit, but on reaching Sheopore on the 21st, it was found that Koer Sing had effected the passage of the river in boats, which had been prepared by his adherents, and were in readiness for him! The other 9-Pounder brass Gun which Koer Sing was known to have here, fell into our hands, together with several elephants, and much ammunition.

9. A party of Rebels is reported to have crossed, near Bulliah, but I have not yet learnt what steps were taken to intercept them by Colonel Cumberlege, who was placed there for that purpose.

10. Having left a sufficient force in Azimgurh, I am now en route with provisions to effect a junction with my scattered Troops, who have been directed to meet me, when I shall be in a position to operate as may be necessary, against any hands of Rebels, either of Koer Sing's Force, who unable to cross may still remain in the District, or against those to the northward of Azimgurh, who may again venture to collect in strength.

11. I regret extremely that, after the very great exertions which have been made to capture Koer Sing, he should have evaded our pursuit; he returns however to his own district a fugitive, hunted and nearly worn out with fatigue, and dispirited by the loss of nearly all his warlike munition.

12. Since the Rebels quitted Azimgurh, we have deprived them of five Guns (two of which belonged to the Government,) about 30 elephants, all their ammunition, and most of their stores and plunder; a large number of the Rebel Sepoys have been killed, and every report agrees that the remainder are much dispirited.

13. I beg you will do me the favor to bring to the especial notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the very extraordinary exertions made by Brigadier Douglas, and the Troops under his Command, and the judgment and untiring energy with which this Officer has conducted the pursuit. I consider that all has been done that it was possible for a military force to do under the circumstances; and that but for the unforeseen event of boats being in readiness on the river, the whole of the Rebels must have been captured or annihilated. Brigadier Douglas was just in time to fire a few rounds from his Guns at the rearmost boats, and to sink one of them.

14. Much credit is also due to Mr. Davies, Civil Service, Magistrate of Azimgurh, who accompanied the Brigadier, and aided him with his local knowledge, and the correct intelligence of the movements of the Rebels.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) EDWARD LUGARD, Brigdr.-Genl.,
Comdg. Azimgurh Field Force.

P. S.—Since writing this, I have received from Brigadier Douglas, a more full and connected Despatch than his daily reports; copy of this together with Returns of Casualties and captured ordnance, stores, &c., I beg to enclose.

BRIGADIER JOHN DOUGLAS, C. B.,

Comdg. Brigade of the Azimgurh Field Force.

To

BRIGDR.-GENERAL SIR E. LUGARD, K. C. B.,

Comdg. Azimgurh Field Force.

Camp Sheopoor Ghaut, 22nd April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of Brigadier General Sir E. Lugard, K. C. B., a detailed account of the operations of the Force under my Command, from the 17th to the 21st April inclusive, the object being to press the Rebels as much as possible, and to force them to give up their Guns.

On the 17th, according to instructions, I marched at 3 A. M. from Nut-hoopoor, with a Force as per margin, and found the Enemy strongly posted at Nughai near Azimgurh; I sent the Cavalry and Horse Artillery of the Advanced Guard through the village by the road, the Infantry cutting across the fields, the Guns became immediately engaged, but the Enemy stood well behind their breast works. At the edges of topes of trees, it was now certain that a large Force was opposed to us with Artillery, as they came round on almost every side and made several attempts to charge the Guns. I threw part of the 37th, 84th, and the Company of Madras Rifles, into skirmishing order with supports, who rapidly advanced under a very heavy fire, carried the Enemy's positions, and drove them off: they retired in good order from tope to tope, followed the Infantry, a number were bayoneted in their trenches, and a color was taken by the 37th. Whilst the Infantry were clearing our front, the Enemy appeared in great force on our left, and were kept in check by the Horse Artillery and Major Cotter's Battery, supported by the Cavalry, who made several charges. I followed the Enemy for some distance, and a number were cut up; they were very determined, and evidently trained Soldiers: in their retreat they divided into two bodies, and I halted for some time, till I could ascertain which was the main body; I then started in pursuit along the lower Ghoosee road passing through Chuprah and Etawah, at which latter place the Enemy seemed to have united; our force bivouacked at Ghoosee, within four miles of the Enemy, after a march of twenty miles; from information afterwards received, the Enemy on our arrival, moved six miles further on.

On the 18th, we marched to within three miles of Mygra, a distance of about twenty-four miles, the Cavalry and Horse Artillery going on in advance, and following the Enemy till they took up their position in the town of Nugra: during the evening, information was received, that the Enemy hearing of our approach, had rapidly left the town, but the spies could not inform us which road they had taken, about midnight we heard that the Enemy had retired towards Secunderpoor, and intended to cross the Gogra there: at 2 A. M. on the 19th, we followed in pursuit, and bivouacked four miles beyond Secunderpoor, and within four miles of the Enemy at Munnuhur in the Ghazeepoor District: during this long march we picked up several of the Enemy's stragglers: we here heard that the Enemy were in much distress by the rapid pursuit, not having had time during the last two days either to cook or sleep. On the 20th, we started so as to arrive at Munnuhur, at daylight and found the Enemy posted in some very thick woods to the right of the village. I ordered a few rounds of grape to be fired, and then advanced part of the 37th and 84th, and Madras Rifles, in skirmishing order through the wood, the Cavalry, and Horse and Madras Artillery moving round by the right. The Enemy were quickly driven from their position, broken and pursued for six miles, by the Cavalry and Artillery; the Horse Artillery and two of Major Cotter's Guns, supported by the greater portion of the Military Train, proceeding along the Bank of the Gogra, where a few of the Enemy crossed in boats, but under a heavy fire. Two of Major Cotter's Guns, with a small portion of the Military Train, and the 3rd Sikh Cavalry, followed to the right in pursuit of a large body of about 1,500; unfortunately one of the Guns broke down in consequence of the rough nature of the ground, and they were obliged to be withdrawn, the Sikhs having continued the pursuit for several miles, cutting up a great number, and dispersing the remainder.

Captain Pearse, Commanding the Sikh Cavalry, desires particularly to mention the gallant conduct of Sepoy No. 1772, Furradun, Madras Rifles, who kept up with the Cavalry, killing several of the Enemy. In the hasty retreat of the Enemy, they abandoned a brass 9-Pounder Gun belonging to the Honorable East India Company's Service, complete in horses and ammunition, several limbers and waggons, and immense quantity of ammunition and a large quantity of treasure, a number of bullocks and hackeries, and four elephants, and the Regimental Colors of the 28th Bengal Native Infantry were found wrapped round the body of a Subadar who was shot. The Enemy on this occasion were completely dispersed. Having collected my Force, I proceeded to Bansdah, where the roads diverge to Bulliah and Beyreah, and then halted till I could ascertain which road the Rebels had taken. Koor Sing was reported first to have gone to a village named Rajnagon, and afterwards to Taintwar, where the dispersed Rebels had their rendezvous. I proceeded in that direction, and found several bodies of the Enemy on my left, and I also understood that they were holding the village; it being nearly dark and the country thickly wooded, I did not consider it advisable to advance further, and bivouacked within two miles of Taintwar. During this night no spies came in, we were under arms at 2 A. M., on the 21st; but at this time a spy came in, saying, that the Enemy had collected all their forces in a dry tank close to the village, and our reconnoitring party made the same statement, which prevented my moving off till daylight. On advancing, I found that the Enemy had moved off, and I am led to believe that they went at a very early hour. I immediately pushed the Cavalry and Horse Artillery on as quickly as possible to the ghaut here, where it was reported the Enemy intended to cross the Ganges, but from all information I was led to believe, that they had no boats, and must ford on elephants in which case I should have been up in time to have prevented their crossing; the information however on this head proved false, as they were provided with boats, and the Cavalry and Horse Artillery arrived only in time to cut up about 200, and sink one of the last boats that crossed; on this march we took another Horse Artillery brass 9-Pounder Gun, belonging to the Honorable East India Company's Service, complete in every respect, and several elephants. I enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded in the two actions, which must be considered very small, in comparison with that of the Enemy, which I believe could not have been less than one thousand Men. I believe the original number of the Enemy to have been between four and five thousand Men, nearly all Sepoys, a good many of them are still on this side of the river. I beg to bring to your notice, the admirable manner in which the Troops performed this rapid and arduous march of nearly 120 miles in five days, many hours in each day under a burning sun, and never under canvas. I beg to thank Colonel Riddell, Royal Artillery, for the assistance he rendered me during the action of the 17th, and whose orders were to return to Azimgurh; I have also to thank Major Cotter, Madras Artillery; Captain Lightfoot, Commanding the 84th Regiment; Captain Harrison, Commanding 37th Regiment; Captain Wyatt, Commanding Military Train; Captain Pearse, Commanding 3rd Sikh Cavalry, Captain Broome, Commanding Detachment Madras Rifles; Lieutenant Fulford, Commanding Punjab Sappers, for their able co-operation during the two actions; also Major Mitchell, Royal Horse Artillery, who was several times detached in Command of Cavalry and Artillery; also Lieutenants Jennings and Beadon, 3rd Sikh Cavalry, for the assistance they gave in reconnoitring and collecting information. I also beg most particularly to mention Captain Stevenson, 79th Highlanders, Major of Brigade, and Major Turner, Royal Artillery, who acted as Artillery Staff Officer, and who both rendered me valuable assistance. In conclusion, I beg to return my best acknowledgments to Mr. R. A. Davies, the Collector of Azimgurh, who accompanied me throughout the operations, and gave me the greatest assistance by his valuable information; he also carried orders for me during the actions, and behaved in the most gallant manner.

I have, &c.,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter, No. 2173, dated the 21st Ultimo, on the subject of Notices of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants sent to your Office.

2. It appears that your Office makes deductions on account of Leave of Absence only from the Salaries of those Uncovenanted Servants who receive their appointments direct from Government; but that in all cases in which Clerks and other Ministerial Officers are allowed Leave of Absence, the Head of the Department or Office in which they are employed is left to make the deductions, your Office simply passing the Salary Abstract of such Establishment, without taking cognizance of the deductions made therein by the Head of the Department or Office, provided the Rule laid down in the Financial Resolution of the 18th December 1843 is not infringed.

3. In reply, I am desired to inform you, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the practice of your Office is incorrect. The Rules of the 22nd February 1856, he observes, are applicable to "All Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government who may be in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards," and it seems to His Lordship in Council that your Office ought invariably to make the deductions provided for in the Rules, in every case in which Leave is granted to such Officers under the rules, whether it be granted by Government, or by Officers to whom power to act upon the Rules may have been delegated by Government.

4. In respect to Officers drawing Salaries of less than Rupees 100 a month, it has been ruled, in the Financial Resolution of the 6th February 1857, that the Heads of Offices should, in granting Leave, be guided by the spirit of the Rules prescribed for those servants who are in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards, and that all cases in which Leave is so granted to Uncovenanted Servants whose Salaries are less than Rupees 100 per month, shall be reported to the Civil Auditor and the Military Auditor General, respectively, in the manner prescribed in the Orders of the 25th July last; viz., that the Auditors should be furnished, on the 1st
May in each year, with "An Annual Return showing the Leave of Absence granted during the year (preceding), under the new Uncovenanted
Civil Service Absentee Rules, to those Uncove-nanted Servants whose Leave might not have been notified in the Gazette."

Notification.

The Civil Auditor, North-Western Provinces, has the honor to repeat his annual call to all Disbursing Officers in charge of Civil Establishments in the North-Western Provinces, for the submission (as soon after the 1st May next, as practicable with the April Abstract,) of their regular Annual Detailed Statement, containing the names and full particulars of the whole of the Establishment, and to observe that, with reference to the orders of Government, dated 15th October 1842, published in the Agra Government Gazette, of the 15th November 1842, the Audit of their Abstracts for April next, will be withheld until the receipt of the required Returns.

2nd. To facilitate check, it is particularly re-

5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Offices of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported monthly (instead of annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin; the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all Absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of Rupees 100 a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than Rupees 100, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter, No. 2173, dated the 21st Ultimo, on the subject of Notices of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants sent to your Office.

2. It appears that your Office makes deductions on account of Leave of Absence only from the Salaries of those Uncovenanted Servants who receive their appointments direct from Government; but that in all cases in which Clerks and other Ministerial Officers are allowed Leave of Absence, the Head of the Department or Office in which they are employed is left to make the deductions, your Office simply passing the Salary Abstract of such Establishment, without taking cognizance of the deductions made therein by the Head of the Department or Office, provided the Rule laid down in the Financial Resolution of the 18th December 1843 is not infringed.

3. In reply, I am desired to inform you, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the practice of your Office is incorrect. The Rules of the 22nd February 1856, he observes, are applicable to "All Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government who may be in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards," and it seems to His Lordship in Council that your Office ought invariably to make the deductions provided for in the Rules, in every case in which Leave is granted to such Officers under the rules, whether it be granted by Government, or by Officers to whom power to act upon the Rules may have been delegated by Government.

4. In respect to Officers drawing Salaries of less than Rupees 100 a month, it has been ruled, in the Financial Resolution of the 6th February 1857, that the Heads of Offices should, in granting Leave, be guided by the spirit of the Rules prescribed for those servants who are in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards, and that all cases in which Leave is so granted to Uncovenanted Servants whose Salaries are less than Rupees 100 per month, shall be reported to the Civil Auditor and the Military Auditor General, respectively, in the manner prescribed in the Orders of the 25th July last; viz., that the Auditors should be furnished, on the 1st May in each year, with "An Annual Return showing the Leave of Absence granted during the year (preceding), under the new Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, to those Uncovenanted Servants whose Leave might not have been notified in the Gazette."

Notification.

THE Civil Auditor, North-Western Provinces, has the honor to repeat his annual call to all Disbursing Officers in charge of Civil Establishments in the North-Western Provinces, for the submission (as soon after the 1st May next, as practicable with the April Abstract,) of their regular Annual Detailed Statement, containing the names and full particulars of the whole of the Establishment, and to observe that, with reference to the orders of Government, dated 15th October 1842, published in the Agra Government Gazette, of the 15th November 1842, the Audit of their Abstracts for April next, will be withheld until the receipt of the required Returns.

2nd. To facilitate check, it is particularly re-

5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Offices of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported monthly (instead of annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin; the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all Absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of Rupees 100 a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than Rupees 100, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

III. MILITARY DEPARTMENT,

No. 84 of 1858

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1. We have taken into our consideration, the communications made in your Military Letters, dated on the 10th December 1857, and 3rd January 1858, relating to the property captured at Delhi; and announcing the grant to the Troops composing the Field Force employed against that City, of a donation of six months' Batta in recognition of their services.

2. We most cordially unite with you in expressing the highest appreciation of the claims of the Troops comprising the Field Force, by which, as observed by you, "Delhi has been nobly wrested from the hands of the Mutineers and Rebels; and by whose gallantry, signal punishment has been inflicted on the Insurgents there." The grant of six months' Batta to all the Troops engaged in the operations against that City, as a donation in recognition of their services, has our approval.

3. We concur in the views announced in your General Order of the 27th November 1857, on the question of claims on the part of the Troops to have granted to them, as Prize, the property belonging to the State, and that belonging to private individuals, recovered from the Mutineers. We also fully approve of your recommendation, that property taken by the Troops, which is neither claimed on behalf of the State, nor claimed and identified by individuals who may establish their loyalty, should be considered to be Prize. We shall, accordingly, as soon as we are informed by you of the necessary particulars, make application to the Crown, in the usual form, praying a Royal Grant of the same as Prize.

4. We are further of opinion, that the Troops are entitled to a special grant on account of the value of the stores and other property recovered by them, on behalf of the State, and on behalf of private individuals, who may establish their loyalty and identify their property; and we have now to announce to you, that we have resolved to grant to the Troops, on this account, an additional donation of six months' full Batta.

5. We trust that no time will be lost in sending us full particulars of the captures which we now propose to recognize as Booty-of-War.

6. The whole of the Despatches and Orders relating to these important operations, have been published in the London Gazette.

We are,
Your affectionate Friends,

F. CURRIE,
And Eight Others.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

No. 85 of 1858

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1. The whole of these documents have been published in the London Gazette. The perusal of them has excited throughout the British Dominions, and, we may add, throughout the civilized world, sentiments of enthusiastic admiration for the undaunted courage, and the still higher qualities of indomitable resolution, fidelity and endurance of long continued danger, trial, and privation, displayed by the comparatively small body of Troops and Volunteers, which so successfully defended the Residency; for the distinguished gallantry of the Forces under the late lamented Sir Henry Havelock, and the Commander-in-Chief, by which they were successively relieved; for the generous and Soldier-like feeling which prompted Major-General Sir J. Outram, on joining Sir H. Havelock's Force, to abstain from assuming the position due to his superior rank, and to leave in the hands of that Officer, the completion of the service he had so triumphantly begun; for the eminent services of Sir J. Outram, after a junction had been effected with the Garrison of the Residency, on the 25th September, until the arrival of the relieving Force under His Excellency Sir C. Campbell; and, pre-eminently, for the consummate skill manifested by General Sir Colin Campbell, in withdrawing without loss, the noble Garrison and all protected by them, to a place of safety.

2. It affords us the highest gratification to communicate to you our cordial approval of the measures adopted by you, in recognition of the heroism of the defenders of Lucknow, viz. :—

No. 144 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch, from Brigadier-General J. Jones, C. B., Commanding Roorkee Field Force, dated the 28th April 1858, reporting his proceedings at Moradabad:—

BRIGADIER-GENERAL J. JONES, C. B.,

THE DEPT. ADJT. GENERAL OF THE ARMY.
Camp Moradabad, the 28th April 1858*

SIR,

THE day following the action of Nugeenah (on the 22nd) the Column moved to Dhampur, and on the 23rd, I struck into the high road from Mozaffurnagar to Moradabad at Noorpoor, with the view of nearing the Ganges in case the Enemy should halt in their flight, and attempt to pass my right flank, and get into the Bijnoor District. I found the people on this road much more friendly; some of the villages had turned out against the Enemy's Cavalry, and cut up about thirty, taking a Gun also which had broken down. Directions were forwarded to the Officer Commanding the Troops watching the ford at Duranuggur to cross and occupy Bijnoor. Mr. A. Shakespear, the Collector of the District, left my Camp at Noorpoor for Bijnoor, I must here record my thanks to Mr. Shakespear for the able assistance he has rendered me: his knowledge of the country is considerable, and the exertion he has made to obtain intelligence and supplies indefatigable. The Column marched to Chujlita on the 24th; intelligence reached me on the road that Moradabad had been occupied by Feroze Shah, son of the late Emperor of Delhi, with 2,500 Followers. It appeared that he had defeated the Troops of Rampore, on the 22nd Instant, under the Nawab's nephew, taking his Guns: some of the Nawab's Troops had acted treacherously and gone over to the Enemy.

On the morning of the 25th, I marched for Moradabad: on nearing the Town I was met by the brother of the Nawab of Rampore. He had marched a body of Troops from Rampore on Moradabad, and defeated Feroze Shah, who, hearing of our approach, evacuated Moradabad and retreated on Bareilly, taking his own and the Guns captured with him. I encamped on the Race Course. Under the direction of Brigadier Coke, the Town was occupied by Infantry and Cavalry, and a diligent search made for the Rebel Chiefs about whom he had obtained information. This search under that most indefatigable Officer was attended with unlooked for success, and I have much pleasure in enclosing his Report, and a list of the persons taken.

I would beg to draw the attention of His Excellency to the gallant conduct, as related in this Report, of Lieutenant Richard Fisher Angelo, 1st Punjaub Infantry, and the loyal and faithful service of Willayat Hoosein Khan, Deputy Collector.

From Mr. J. F. D. Inglis, Civil Service, I have received most valuable assistance, and I am happy in having an Officer of this Service in my Camp, on whose knowledge and discretion I can so much rely.

From all the information I can gather, I am led to believe that the Rebels who have escaped, are all making towards Bareilly, and I believe I have fully carried out His Excellency's directions to clear the Enemy from this portion of Rohilcund.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JOHN JONES, Brigdr.-Genl.,
Comdg. Roorkee Field Force.

P. S.—I must not omit to mention an excellent young Officer of the Civil Service accompanying my Camp, Mr. Lowe, from whom I have received much assistance.

MAJOR MUTER,
Asst. Adjt.-Genl., Field Force
Moradabad, the 26th April 1858.*

SIR,

ON the arrival of the Force at this place yesterday, I obtained information from Mr. Inglis, Civil Service, in charge of the Civil Department with this Force, that it was probable that a number of the Chief Rebels were concealed in the City; this was confirmed by the information of Willayat Hoosein, Deputy Collector of Moradabad.

I accordingly made an inspection of the City with Mr. Inglis, and having settled the different points to be held during the search, I obtained the Major-General's sanction to take a sufficient Force into the City to carry out this object. I had previously placed parties of the Mooltanee Cavalry round the City to prevent the escape of the Rebels: about 12 o'clock I proceeded with 2 Guns of Captain Austin's Battery, a party of Sappers and the 1st Punjaub Infantry, to search the Mohulla of Nawab Mujjoo Khan, the Chief of the Rebels in this District, who had caused himself to be proclaimed Nawab of Moradabad, and had instigated the people to murder and plunder the Europeans at this place.

After a long search, I succeeded in capturing Nawab Mujjoo Khan: one of his sons and his nephew were shot on the spot as resistance was made by the Soldiers of the Nawab's Guard.

The capture of the Nawab was effected by Lieutenant Angelo, doing duty with the 1st Punjaub Infantry, who deserves great credit for his spirited conduct on this occasion. This Officer having burst open the door of the room in which the Nawab and his sons were concealed, and having captured them, was fired on by the Guard of the Nawab, who were in a room on an upper story, commanding the house in which the Nawab was concealed. Lieutenant Angelo rushed up the narrow stairs leading to this room, burst open the door, and single-handed entered the room, shot three men with his revolver, and on being joined by some of his men, captured the rest of the Guard.

A quantity of property and some Horses were, with my sanction, taken by the Troops, and an Elephant belonging to the Nawab, was made over to the Commissariat.

I enclose herewith a List of the Chief Rebels, captured on this occasion, furnished by Mr. Inglis.

I am much indebted to Willayat Hoosein Khan, Deputy Collector, for the information afforded by him: he has proved the correctness of the opinion formed of him by Mr. Wilson, "that he was a loyal subject and might be fully trusted." I hope he may be rewarded for the excellent service he has rendered.

Having effected the capture of the Rebel leaders, and as Mr. Inglis considered his Police able to effect the capture of the followers of the Nawab and the other Rebels in the City, I brought the Force back to Camp.

The energy displayed by Officers and Men in carrying out my orders after a long march in the five hours' laborious work in the City, was very creditable to them.

I have, &c.,

No. 145 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to publish for general information, the following Letter, from the Deputy Adjutant General of the Army, No. 297 A, dated the 6th of May 1858, and the Despatch which accompanied it, from Brigadier H. R. Jones, of Her Majesty's 6th Carabineers, giving an account of an affair which took place at Kukerowlee, on the 30th Ultimo, between the Rebels and the Force under Major-General N. Penny, C. The Governor General shares the deep regret expressed by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, at the loss which the service has suffered, in the death of that distinguished Officer.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor General, a Despatch from Brigadier H. R. Jones, of Her Majesty's 6th Carabineers, in which that Officer gives an account of an affair which lately took place at Kukerowlee, in the Budaon District of Rohileund.

Dated 30th April 1858.

2. His Excellency desires to express the deep regret he feels at having to announce to His Lordship, the death of the lamented Major-General Penny, C. B. This old and very deserving Officer had remained patiently in the district for the last six weeks, at the head of his Moveable Column, performing a most important service in the safe-guard of the communications, while the country was much denuded of Troops in consequence of the operations in Oudh. With all the anxiety of a young man for Military distinction, he rode a very long distance to confer with His Excellency, prior to his passage of the Ganges, notwithstanding the intense heat of the weather.

3. As shown in the Despatch of Brigadier Jones, it would appear, that the lamented Major-General lost his life, in consequence of having been blinded by false intelligence, which caused him, probably for the sake of sparing his Troops, to neglect some common Military precautions.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

FROM

To

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF,

Camp Kukerowlee, the 30th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that under the orders of Major-General Penny, C. B., Commanding the Force, a Column strength as per margin, was held in readiness to move from the village of Nerolee, upon the Town of Oosait, at 8 o'clock P. M., on the evening of the 29th April. At the latter place, it was supposed that the Rebels were in considerable force with 1 or more Guns, and the object of the movement was to surprise and cut them up. The Column moved off at about 9 o'clock, but owing to one delay or another did not reach Oosait, a distance of about 7 miles, till 12 o'clock that night. The Column up to this point, moved in Military formation with an Advanced Guard, followed by Artillery, duly supported by Cavalry with the Infantry in rear, the heavy Guns and Baggage having been sent with a sufficient escort straight to Kukerowlee.

When within a short distance of Oosait, Mr. Wilson, the Commissioner, informed General Penny, that the Rebels had entirely evacuated the place, and with their Guns had retired to Datagunge. The Column, however, still moved forward, and on reaching Oosait, the information given to Mr. Wilson by the Town people appeared to satisfy him of the correctness of the above report. From this point Military precautions were somewhat neglected, the mounted portion of the Column being allowed very considerably to outmarch the Infantry, and eventually though an Advanced Guard was kept up, it was held back immediately in front of the Artillery, and such was the confidence placed in native reports, that Major-General Penny and his Staff, under the guidance of Mr. Wilson, the Commissioner, were riding at the head of the Advanced Guard, at about 4 o'clock on the morning of the 30th of April, leading it to Kukerowlee, where it had been previously determined that our Camp should be pitched, and the Force halted for the day. When within one or two hundred yards of Kukerowlee, some Horsemen were indistinctly seen in front, and some inquiries were made as to what they could be, it was supposed they must be a portion of our own Force, that had marched by the direct route to Kukerowlee, and the advance was continued without any extra precaution being taken till we found ourselves close to the Town of Kukerowlee, in a regularly prepared ambush, with Guns opening on us from the right, with grape and round shot at not more than forty yards distance, while the Horsemen charged down from the left, and Infantry opened on us with musketry from the front. As far as can be ascertained, it was at this moment that the much lamented Major-General Penny, fell disabled by a grape shot; he was at the rate not seen alive afterwards.

The 4 Guns of Captain Hammond's Light Field Battery, were now ordered to the front, and nobly did this Officer and his Men respond to the call. The ground, however where the Enemy had taken up their position, was to our left, nothing but a mass of sand hills, while to our right they were protected by thick groves of trees, and immediately in their rear, they had the Town of Kukerowlee to fall back upon. Owing to these circumstances, and to the want of light, the execution done by the fire of our Artillery, was less severe than it would have been under more favorable circumstances, and the same causes operated against an effective advance of our Cavalry. The Enemy's numbers and real position could not be seen, and under these circumstances, it was deemed best merely to hold our ground till daylight, might enable us to determine the particular point for our attack, and the Infantry could be brought up and made available. On the arrival of Lieutenant-Colonel Bingham, with Her Majesty's 64th Foot, he was ordered to advance upon, and dislodge the Enemy from his front and right: this was done in the most gallant style, and the Enemy were speedily driven into the Town. Not feeling myself strong enough to follow them there, the Artillery was directed to fire the Town by shelling, and this they speedily accomplished. Sometime after this, information was brought that the Rebels were evacuating Kukerowlee at the opposite end of the Town. The Force was accordingly put in pursuit, but it soon became evident that nothing but a rapid advance of Cavalry would enable us to come up with them. Major Bickerstaff, in Command of the two Squadrons of Her Majesty's Carabineers, and Lieutenant Lind, in Command of the Mooltan Horse, were accordingly ordered forward at a gallop to endeavour to overtake them: this duty was performed by both, thoroughly and zealously: they drove the Enemy in confusion with them, and succeeded in cutting up many, capturing one of his Guns and two carts containing powder. The Enemy being no longer in sight, the Force returned to Kukerowlee, and encamped there for the day, after having marched fully 25 miles. I have now to return my thanks to the Officers of Major-General Penny's Staff, who, on his death volunteered their services to me, and rendered me much assistance during the day; viz., to Major Harriott, Deputy Judge Advocate-General; Captain Simeon, Assistant Adjutant-General; Captain Briggs, Commissariat Officer with the Force; Lieutenant Eckford, Assistant Quarter-Master-General; this Officer I regret to say, was severely wounded. Also Captain Dudgeon, of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, and Lieutenant Warde, of the late 11th Native Infantry, both Aide-de-Camps to Major-General Penny. A Return of Casualties will be forwarded as soon as made out.

I have, &c.,

No. 146 of 1858.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch, from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, dated 8th May 1858, reporting operations against the Rebels in Rohilcund.

His Lordship desires that His Excellency will accept his hearty congratulations and thanks upon the complete accomplishment of all the operations projected for Rohilcund.

The small cost of life at which success has been secured to the Forces under His Excellency's Command, is again a source of the highest satisfaction to the Governor General; while the cheerful endurance by the Troops of the fatigue and exposure to which they have necessarily been subjected of late, is quite admirable.

The whole of Brigadier-General Jones' progress from Roorkee to Bareilly has, in the Governor General's opinion, been marked with a happy combination of energy and prudence.

To

THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE VISCOUNT CANNING,
Governor General.

Camp Bareilly, the 8th May 1858.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honor to report to your Lordship, that according to my intentions already announced, my Head Quarters were transferred to General Walpole's Division in Rohilcund on the 27th Ultimo. The Siege Train, &c., having joined him on the previous day.

The time had now arrived for General Walpole's Division to advance on Bareilly on the one side, while directions were sent to Brigadier-General Jones, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, with whose movements your Lordship has already been made acquainted, to move forward from Moradabad in a like direction.

The late lamented General Penny, C. B., was instructed to cross the Ganges with the Troops as per margin, at the same time at Nudowlee, to advance through the Budaon District and unite himself to the Column under my immediate orders at Meranpore Kutra, on the end of the 6th March

Although this Officer unhappily lost his life in a trifling skirmish, the orders were literally obeyed, and the junction was effected as designed under the orders of Brigadier Jones, Her Majesty's 6th Dragoon Guards.*

The Rebels, who had so long occupied the Ghats of the Ganges above Futtighur, and the District of Budaon, having retired before him, and swelled the mass of the insurgents at Bareilly. During my advance from Futtighur towards Bareilly, the detached parties of the Enemy which had previously occupied Shahjehanpore and the various large villages along the line of road, did not venture in a single instance to offer resistance. Accordingly every town and village was spared, and I advanced by the regular marches, having halted one day at Shahjehanpore to form a Military post at that place.

On the 5th Instant, a movement was made on Bareilly. The information which had been furnished me from various quarters was most conflicting, and to place reliance on it, was utterly impossible. In short in spite of the assumed friendship of the Hindoo portion of the population, I have not found it easier to obtain information in Rohilcund, on which trust could be put than has been the case in dealing with the insurrection in other parts of the Empire.

Very early on the morning of the 5th, the advance having been made from Furreedpore, the Force consisting of as per margin was formed in line-of-battle about 6 o'clock, A. M. The first line consisted of the Highland Brigade, supported by the 4th Sikhs and Belooch Battalion, with a heavy Field Battery, in the centre with Horse Artillery and Cavalry, on both flanks under the respective Brigadiers and Commandants.

The second line was wholly employed for the protection of the baggage and Siege Train, this precaution appearing to be necessary owing to the very numerous Rebel Cavalry. The Enemy who had come out from the City with much boldness and taken position on the left bank of the Nuttea Nuddee having that stream in his rear, fired his first Guns about 7 o'clock A. M.

His Guns were well placed, advantage having been taken of the road along which we were advancing, and of certain sand hills. The Horse Artillery and Cavalry advanced at the trot from both flanks, whilst the heavy Field Battery with Infantry in line, pressed up along the centre.

In a short time the Enemy was driven from his Guns, the left part of our line taking position on the river, while the right crossed the bridge and advanced about three quarters of a mile towards the Town. The heavy Guns were rapidly passed over in succession, and placed in a position from which they raked the centre of the Enemy's second line, which he had taken up in the suburbs. A considerable distance had now been traversed by the Troops, and it became necessary to check the advance to allow time for the Siege Train and Baggage to close up.

About 11 A. M., great activity was observed in the Enemy's ranks, and while the attention of my right was occupied by a considerable body in the suburbs, the most determined effort that I have seen made in this war to turn and break through the left, was executed at this time by the Enemy.

Some old Cavalry lines had been occupied by a Sikh Regiment. Such was the vigor with which this Regiment a most distinguished one (Major Wilde's) under Command of Lieutenant McQueen, was attacked by a large body of fanatical Ghazees, that they gave way for a few minutes. The Ghazees perceiving their advantage, rushed like madmen on the 42nd Highlanders, who had been formed in line in rear of the village to support the Sikhs as soon as the hostile movement was described. These Men were all killed in the very ranks of the 42nd Highlanders in a most desperate hand-to-hand encounter.

The 42nd supported by the 4th Sikhs, and a part of the 79th Highlanders then advanced, sweeping through the various lines for about a mile and a half into the Cantonments where they were placed in position for the day.

Whilst the Ghazee attack had been going on the left of the first line, a very large body of the Enemy's Cavalry, some 600 or 700 in number coming round our extreme left, attacked the baggage. They were quickly encountered by Lieutenant-Colonel Tombs's Horse Artillery Troop, which after the first advance across the river, had been left to meet such a contingency by Her Majesty's Carabineers, (6th Dragoon Guards), the Mooltanee Horse and the Infantry of the Rear Guard; their instant dispersion took place.

This was the last effort made by the Enemy. A short time afterwards the 79th and 93rd were directed to seize all the suburbs in their front, and the Troops were put under shade as far as possible, the action having lasted for about six hours and the Troops having been under arms from 2 A. M.

Early on the next morning on the 6th Instant, the whole Force advanced into the Cantonment. At the same time I had the pleasure to hear Brigadier-General Jones's Guns on the Moradabad side of Bareilly. This Officer had obeyed his instructions with great judgement and spirit, defeated a portion of the Enemy on the 5th Instant, taking 3 Guns used finding himself resisted in his approach to the Town on the 6th, took three more which were in position against him, entered the Town and took three advanced positions without delay.

On the morning of the 7th, the Town was finally reduced, and the Musselman portion of it, where there were still detached bodies of Ghazees remaining with the intention to sell their lives as dearly as possible was cleared.

When I passed through Shahjehanpore, I was informed that the Fyzabad Moulvie and the Nawab of the former place were at Mohumdee, with a considerable body of Men who had retired from Shahjehanpore. I thought it would be impolitic to leave the district of that name without evidence of our presence, a post was therefore formed consisting of 500 H. M.'s 82nd Foot, a Detachment of Artillery with two 24-Pounders and two 9-Pounders and DeKantzow's Horse, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel; Hale, C. B., H. M.'s 82nd Foot. He was directed to hold the large enclosure of the Jail, I anticipated that as soon as my back was turned the Moulvie and the Nawab would annoy him. This expectation turned out to be correct, and on the 3rd Instant, he was attacked and invested by immense bodies and Cavalry. The Guns brought against him were of very insignificant calibre, and he writes that he had no Casualties within his entrenchments.

Brigadier-General Jones marched this morning with a Force as per margin to his relief. The Brigadier-General has a discretionary power to attack Mohumdee after the relief has been effected. I have not as yet received Brigadier-General Jones's Despatch of his own operations on the 5th and 3th Instant, but it will be forwarded to the Secretary of Government for submission to your Lordship in due course. In the meantime, I beg to recommend most favorably to your Lordship, the Brigadier-General and the Officers to whom he is indebted since his passage of the Ganges, to take part in the general contribution arranged for reduction of Rohilcund. I have the greatest reason to be satisfied with all the Troops under my own immediate Command. Their alacrity to meet the Enemy on all occasions is of course what your Lordship expects from them; but I must not lose this opportunity of bearing my testimony to the constancy displayed by all ranks of the Force in the performance of their duty during the great and incessant heat of the season of the year. It is difficult to speak too highly of that cheerful endurance of intense fatigue, to which we are indebted for the victories gained at comparatively trifling loss on the day of battle.

I beg to return my thanks to the Officers of the Staff, and Officers Commanding Regiments and Corps employed during the Campaign of Rohilcund, and to append a list of their names.

I have the honor to be, My Lord,

With the greatest respect,

Your Lordship's most obedt. & humble Servt.,

C. CAMPBELL, General,

No. 85.

FROM

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR J. H. GRANT, K. C. B., Commanding Lucknow Field Force.

TO

THE DEPT. ADJT.-GENL. OF THE ARMY.
Dated Lucknow, the 24th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that agreeably to the instructions I received from His

Her Majesty's 38th Regiment.
Her Majesty's 2nd Battalion
Rifle Brigade.
1st Bengal Fusiliers.
A Wing 5th Punjab
Rifles.
Detail of Sappers and Miners.

Excellency, I marched with the Force detailed in the margin, on the 14th Instant, towards Barree where a Rebel Force was reported to be assembled under the Fyzabad Moulvie. Early on the morning of the 13th, when about a mile from Camp Uttereah, my Advance Guard consisting of one Troop Irregular Cavalry, one Squadron 7th Hussars, two Horse Artillery Guns, Pioneers of Regiments, and 100 Infantry, came upon an advance force of the Enemy. The Advanced Guard under the orders of Lieutenant-Colonel J. M. Hagart, was immediately formed to the front. The Enemy's Cavalry charged two Horse Artillery Guns under the Command of Lieutenant Hunter, opened a well-directed and rapid fire upon them, and a Detachment of the 1st Sikh Cavalry under Command of Lieutenant Prendergast, met them in a very gallant style, and had a hand-to-hand encounter with them, in which Lieutenant Prendergast was wounded. A Squadron of the 7th Hussars was covering the Guns and in support. The Enemy's Cavalry was soon driven off with loss. In the meantime I had ordered the Column to be formed to the front, the Cavalry to the right. The 2nd Battalion of the Rifle Brigade in the first line, on the left supported by the Wing of the 5th Punjab Infantry, the 38th in the 2nd line. The Enemy's Cavalry which had retired to my right, moved round towards the rear, and made an attack upon the baggage, but they were repulsed and driven off by a Troop of the 7th Hussars, under Lieutenant Topham, supported by a Squadron of that Regiment under Major Horne, and the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, which I had ordered to cover the right rear. I then advanced against the main body of the Enemy's Infantry, which was posted in a strong position in my front and towards the left. The Battalion of the Rifle Brigade soon drove them off and they retired in disorder towards Barree. On this occasion the rapidity and steadiness with which the Cavalry under Lieutenant-Colonel Hagart was manœuvred on my right and right rear, when the Enemy attempted to attack the long line of Baggage, is deserving of great praise; the Horse Artillery, and the Field Battery also did good service here, whenever the Enemy showed himself, there was a Detachment to meet and repulse him; on one occasion two Companies of the 1st Bengal Fusiliers in line, defeating a charge of Cavalry.

I would also bring to the notice of His Excellency the steadiness of the Rifles in the General Advance reserving their fire until it was really wanted.

The Enemy showed no Guns on the Field, but a tumbril full of Ammunition was found deserted.

My acknowledgements are due to the following Officers for the support they rendered me on this occasion :

Brigadier Horsford, C. B., Commanding the Infantry, whose coolness and ability in manœuvring his Brigade I wish to bring to His Excellency's notice.

Lieutenant-Colonel Hagart, Commanding the Cavalry, who also had the Superintendence of the out-post duty on this as on former occasions, was most active and energetic.

Lieutenant-Colonel Maberly, Commanding the Artillery, who though suffering from bad health, was most active in the discharge of his duties.

Lieutenant-Colonel Kelly, Commanding 38th Regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel Hill, Commanding 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade; Major Sir W. Russell, Commanding 7th Hussars; Major Horne, 7th Hussars, who had Command of the Detachment covering the rear.

Major Nicholson, Royal Engineers, Commanding Engineers and Sappers and Miners, who was most energetic and active. Captain Hume, Commanding 1st European Bengal Fusiliers; Captain Middleton, Commanding Battery, Royal Artillery; Captain Mackinnon, Commanding Troop Bengal Horse Artillery; Captain Talbot, Royal Artillery, Commanding Heavy Battery; Captain Hutcheson, Commanding Squadron 2nd Dragoon Guards; Lieutenant Stewart, Commanding 1st Sikh Cavalry; Lieutenant Lawford, Commanding Squadron Hodson's Horse; Lieutenants Hunter and McLeod, Bengal Artillery; Lieutenant Prendergast, 1st Sikh Cavalry, who was wounded in the charge on the Advanced Guard; Lieutenant Topham, 7th Hussars; the Troop under this Officer's Command met the Enemy's Cavalry at the charge when one man of the 7th was killed, and Lieutenant Topham and six Men wounded.

Major Mollan, 75th Regiment, Major of Brigade of Infantry, and Captain the Hon'ble J. Piennes, Major of Brigade of Cavalry.

Captain Reid, Deputy Commissioner, and who had charge of the Intelligence Department, rendered important service.

To my Personal Staff—Captain the Hon'ble A. Anson, 84th Regiment, Aide-de-Camp, Captain Walseley, 90th Light Infantry, Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master-General, and Major W. Hamilton, 9th Lancers, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, my acknowledgements are also due.

On arrival at Barree, it was found to be evacuated by the Rebels; a quantity of Military Stores were found in it, which were destroyed.

I arrived at Mamadabad on the 15th Instant, there had been a large body of Rebels here, but on the approach of the Column they dispersed. In the Fort was found one Brass Gun, and a quantity of Gunpowder. The Nawab's house, a large building in the Fort, was blown up and completely destroyed by the Engineers in the course of the afternoon.

The Force arrived at Ramnugger on the 19th. The Rajah's house here I had also destroyed, as he was assisting the Rebels.

At Ramnugger I received intelligence, that the large Force which was assembled at Bitowlee, had dispersed on the approach of the Column.

On the 22nd, on the March from Munawlee to Nawabgunge, 3 Native Iron Guns were found in the Fort of Jungeerabad, which was given up without resistance, and a 24-Pounder Native Iron Gun was found at a village about three miles from Nawabgunge. The 4 Guns were all destroyed.

On the 23rd Instant, I made over Command of the Column to Brigadier Horsford, C. B., and it will be encamped to-morrow at Chenuote, four miles from the Iron Bridge.

I have, &c,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter, No. 2173, dated the 21st Ultimo, on the subject of Notices of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants sent to your Office.

2. It appears that your Office makes deductions on account of Leave of Absence only from the Salaries of those Uncovenanted Servants who receive their appointments direct from Government; but that in all cases in which Clerks and other Ministerial Officers are allowed Leave of Absence, the Head of the Department or Office in which they are employed is left to make the deductions, your Office simply passing the Salary Abstract of such Establishment, without taking cognizance of the deductions made therein by the Head of the Department or Office, provided the Rule laid down in the Financial Resolution of the 18th December 1843 is not infringed.

3. In reply, I am desired to inform you, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the practice of your Office is incorrect. The Rules of the 22nd February 1856, he observes, are applicable to "All Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government who may be in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards," and it seems to His Lordship in Council that your Office ought invariably to make the deductions provided for in the Rules, in every case in which Leave is granted to such Officers under the rules, whether it be granted by Government, or by Officers to whom power to act upon the Rules may have been delegated by Government.

4. In respect to Officers drawing Salaries of less than Rupees 100 a month, it has been ruled, in the Financial Resolution of the 6th February 1857, that the Heads of Offices should, in granting Leave, be guided by the spirit of the Rules prescribed for those servants who are in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards, and that all cases in which Leave is so granted to Uncovenanted Servants whose Salaries are less than Rupees 100 per month, shall be reported to the Civil Auditor and the Military Auditor General, respectively, in the manner prescribed in the Orders of the 25th July last; viz., that the Auditors should be furnished, on the 1st May in each year, with "An Annual Return showing the Leave of Absence granted during the year (preceding), under the new Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, to those Uncovenanted Servants whose Leave might not have been notified in the Gazette."

MONTHLY STATEMENT of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants drawing more than Rupees 10 per Mensem, for the Month of 185

								Total	20 0 0

5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Offices of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported monthly (instead of annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin; the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all Absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of Rupees 100 a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than Rupees 100, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

SIR,

HAVING observed that the Commissioners of Divisions have been called upon to furnish the names of such natives of the country as have rendered valuable services to the Government or its Officers, during the late disturbances, with particulars of their services, that they may be suitably rewarded, I have the honor to request that you will submit the following statement from me to the favorable consideration of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

When the Troops at Bareilly mutinied, I escaped through the assistance of a Naick of the Corps from the Station, and wandered about for several days, receiving much sympathy and kindness from the poor people, but not allowed to remain in the villages by the owners until on the morning of the 5th June I was sheltered by a man named Gungaram Misr, Brahmin, resident of Bujheyra in the Pergunnah of Khera Bujheyra and District of Shahjehanpore, who had formerly been a Sepahi, but left the service about ten years ago. As usual, I had been denied permission to stay in the village by the head man; but Gungaram, though aware of this, and though employed as a servant by this head man, after consulting his elder brother, took me secretly to his home, amongst his own female relatives, and there protected and sheltered me unknown to any one save the family (and one particular friend, Bikka Sing, whose assistance was necessary for that purpose,) for several weeks, until circumstances necessitated my quitting the house for a time. During this period, Gungaram, his brother Chundun Pershad, and their mother, and wives and children did every thing in their power to serve me, unaided by any one save Bikka Sing, at a time when they could have scarcely, if any, hope of reward, for the continuance of the British power in India was doubted by all, and at great risk to themselves, not only from the Mussalmans, but any and every one who might wish to ingratiate himself with the powers that then were. Afterwards they continued to show the utmost devotion to me, until, at the end of five months, through their effectual assistance, I was enabled to escape to the right bank of the river and met Mr. J. C. Wilson, C. S., who had nobly come down amidst the disturbed districts to rescue me. Nor was this all, for through their assistance I was enabled to communicate with Nynce Tal, Cawnpore, Allygurh and Delhi, and learn of the whereabouts of other fugitives in Rohilcund, and to bring over to their village Serjeant-Major Belcham with his wife and family, and to carry them with me across the river. Since then they have been continually employed to arrange for the rescue of other fugitives in Rohilcund, for whom upwards of 45, in addition to my own party, have been brought over. All these exertions on their part for the good of European and Eurasian servants of Government and Native Christians have led to corresponding persecution on the part of the Rebels. A price has been put on the head of each which has forced them to flee from their home; their homestead has been sold and their families, among them some helpless children, are obliged to wander about in fields and forest to escape the hands of the Rebel Soldiery. That they are poor is another favorable feature in the case, as they had the temptation of the large rewards offered for the apprehension of European Officers and the trouble and expense of supporting an European and waiting upon him, and this to a perfect stranger, and one of the race which, the agents of disorder were continually telling them, had done all in its power, through fraud, to subvert their religion.

I would, therefore, earnestly recommend them to the most favorable notice of Government, with a request that they should be rewarded with the proprietary right of such an estate as would mark the appreciation of their noble conduct extended over so long a period.

Bikka Sing, their humane co-adjutor, did almost if not quite as much as these two brothers. He is a resident of the same village, and a petty land owner in it. From the very first he was consulted by Gungaram and Chundun Pershad, and it was to his house I removed when obliged to quit my first abode. All I have urged in favor of the two Brahmins is equally true of this Thakoor, for he helped them to clothe, shelter, feed and protect me, and finally to effect the escape of the whole party of Europeans. He has also been outlawed by the Rebels and cannot remain at his home, though, as Gungaram, he has been actively employed in aiding other refugees to cross over from Rohilcund, and in other service for Government; numerous attempts were made to capture me, but through the influence of the three friends, aided by their prudence and zeal, each was happily frustrated. Bikka Sing deserves, equally well with the two Brahmins, the favorable notice of Government, and I would therefore recommend him for a similar reward.

Booray Sing, Zemindar of Bettara, in the Pergunnah of Khaira Bujheyra and District of Shah-jehanpore, and his two sons Sew Gholam Sing and Hurjoo Sing, also deserve well of Government. They apprised me of the numerous attempts made for my apprehension, at times sheltered me when obliged to flee from Bujheyra, and have aided other refugees to escape from Rohilcund. They have also brought over two Government Stallions and lately attacked some of the Rebel posts. They and their families are outlaws, and their homestead has been destroyed. I would recommend that Booray Sing be granted the proprietary right in a village paying an annual revenue of Rupees (1,000) one thousand, and Rupees five hundred (500) as compensation for the losses he has suffered; and that each of his sons receive a reward of Rupees one thousand (1,000) for their loyalty.

Seetaram Missur, Brahmin of Bangaon, in the District and Pergunnah before mentioned; Luchee Kubar, resident of Tilla, Pergunnah Crore, District Bareilly; Boodhoo and Jodhun Saies, and Moosa Dhubey, also did good service in conveying letters about for me in different directions, more especially the first, who twice went for me to Cawnpore, once to Delhi and once to Allygurh, and by his combined boldness and prudence was the means, under God, of my escape being effected by Mr. Wilson; and I would therefore recommend him for the grant of proprietary right in an estate paying an annual revenue of Rupees two hundred (200,) and the rest donations of Rupees one hundred (100) each.

There are others whose loyalty I have to bring to the notice of the Government, but of whose circumstances I can give no account at present.

FROM

MAJOR GENERAL G. C. WHITLOCK,

TO

MAJOR-GENERAL MANSFIELD,
Chief of the Staff, Bengal.
Camp Banda, the 24th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of India, that the Force under my Command as per margin, fought a general action with the Troops of the Nawab of Banda, on the 19th Instant.

A Troop H. A. European.	110

Nawab Ali Bahadur determined on opposing my advance on Banda, took up during the 18th Instant a position about 5 miles from the left bank of the river Kane, selected with consummate judgment, and in every respect well adapted for the protection of his capital.

His Artillery commanded the main road on which my Force was moving, enabling him to withdraw his Guns if hard pressed,—broken ground with numerous ravines and nullahs covered his whole front, affording excellent cover to a swarm of skirmishers, who, not only knew their value, but most skilfully availed themselves of them whilst every desired movement on my part on the Enemy's flanks was impeded by ground most difficult for the combined operations of Artillery and Cavalry.

The Enemy, six thousand in number, with three thousand in reserve, were under the personal Command of the Nawab, and principally composed of Mutineers of the three arms, the Infantry with percussion muskets. Videttes on our flanks and front watched our advance, and a near approach to reconnoitre, disclosed the Enemy's position, from which a sharp fire of Artillery was opened.

An advanced party under Colonel Apthorp, K. F. S., 3rd Madras Europeans, first encountered their Infantry, and soon found themselves under a heavy fire; every nullah was vigorously disputed, and the judgment and decision with which that Officer conducted his movements, thus avoiding much severe loss, called forth my highest commendations.

It now became necessary to dislodge a Battery on our right flank, which would have swept through our skirmishers, had they further advanced and no Men ever charged more nobly than the Squadron of the 2nd Hyderabad Contingent Cavalry, under their gallant leader Captain Macintire; one Gun was captured, the other in the Melée escaped for a time, but the object was effected.

The main body of my Force had now come up and I directed its movement to the left, thus co-operating with the Advanced Guard which was hardly pressed. A flanking fire soon relieved them and the desperate resistance and continued struggle of the Enemy to maintain his ground, led to many a hand-to-hand conflict, where the bayonet did great execution.

By the most persevering efforts my Artillery and Cavalry flank the Enemy, causing heavy loss and capturing 3 Guns, and the gallantry of Her Majesty's 12th Lancers and the Rissalah, were most conspicuous on these occasions.

The Horse Artillery and Horse Battery did their work with an alacrity, spirit and precision of fire not to be surpassed, and each man of the Native Troop vied with the European Soldier in his vigorous pursuit of the Enemy.

The 18-Pounders served by the Royal Artillery, made some excellent practice; it was work of much labor to bring them into position, but it was cheerfully and well executed by Officers and Men.

Although the Enemy now began to retire, it was four hours before the firing ceased; they fell back occupying every available ground for opposition and our Guns were in constant employment to dislodge them.

The Nawab at length fled, leaving on the field (from information I have since received,) more than a thousand of his Men, eight hundred of whom were amongst the killed; several Men of note were slain, and within a few hours many notorious vagabonds have been hanged.

A Fort commanding the Ford was reported to be occupied by the Enemy, and it was necessary to bring up some heavy Guns previous to advancing; this retarded our movement and enabled the Enemy to cross the river and get so far ahead as to escape further pursuit.

A flag of truce now approached; it was borne by some of the principal inhabitants of the City, who informed me the Nawab had fled, the Town evacuated, and the Mutineers had set fire to their lines. So great indeed was the panic and so sudden, that on occupying the Palace, we found food preparing for the Nawab.

My Troops are now in possession of the Palace and Town, 13 large brass Guns, besides several of small Calibre—a large quantity of ammunition, much valuable property belonging to the Nawab, some 40,000 Rupees in specie—four Elephants, fifty Camels with other Cattle, and about two thousand Rupees worth of grain of sorts.

The British Flag was hoisted under a general salute in the presence of the Troops, and the Commissioner is busily employed in establishing order.

The contest was a lengthened one, but Europeans and Natives fought well and manfully against their disciplined Enemy, and merit my warmest praise for their conduct.

It was the first time the 3rd Madras European Regiment were under fire. I noticed their steadiness and good discipline, with pride as well as the gallantry of the Hyderabad Company, who charged and with great slaughter, drove a large party from their stronghold.

Our own loss is extraordinarily small, considering the fire to which the Troops were so long exposed. Amongst the killed I have to lament a promising young Officer, Lieutenant Colbeck, of the 3rd Europeans.

I beg to attach copies of the Reports from Brigadier Miller, Commanding the Artillery, and Major Oakes, Commanding the Cavalry Brigade, and it is most gratifying to me to add my testimony to the distinguished gallantry of those Officers whose names they have brought to notice, and the dashing style in which they led their Guns and Troops into action.

Brigadier Miller, a most able and energetic Officer, disposed of his Artillery with a skill and intelligence most praiseworthy, and I cordially thank him. I regret to add he was severely wounded, and that I am thereby deprived for a time of his valuable services. Major Lavie assumed Command, and I have special satisfaction in recording the steadiness and intelligence with which he conducted his important duties.

Major Oakes displayed the zeal and activity of an excellent Cavalry Officer throughout the day.

Brigadier Carpenter brought his Infantry into action, with a steady precision with which I was perfectly satisfied.

Colonel Apthorp's management of the Troops placed at his disposal, was what I expected from an Officer of his high character. I beg to annex his Report.

It is a pleasing duty to bring to the special notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a favor which I beg to solicit at your hands the name of Captain Macintire, of the Madras Artillery, Commanding a Squadron of the 2nd Hyderabad Contingent Cavalry, always distinguished for his zeal, a Soldier's spirit, and a judgment well fitting him for his Command; his charge on the Enemy's Guns (I had no Infantry at hand for that purpose,) was the admiration of all who witnessed the affair, and his Men followed their leader with an order with which his high bearing has inspired them, and I cannot express myself in too high terms of their spirit and their gallantry. Lieutenant Ryall, the Adjutant of the Regiment, accompanied the Troop on its attack, and with his Commanding Officer, cut down several of the Enemy in hand-to-hand combat.

I received much assistance from my Assistant Adjutant-General, Major R. Hamilton, an able, intelligent and worthy Officer, as well as from my Assistant Quarter Master-General, Captain Lawder, both were by my side during the whole of the action; also Major Mayne, Deputy Judge Advocate General to the Force.

Lieutenant Homan, 50th Regiment Native Infantry, my Aide-de-Camp, was very useful to me.

Major Brett, 3rd Madras European Regiment, an experienced and able Officer, who was attached as Orderly Officer to me during the day, was very active in carrying my orders.

The Officers of the Engineers' Department were with me on the Field, and Major Ludlow, Field Engineer, received the flag of truce.

The Commissariat Department under Lieutenant Barrow, has been admirably conducted for the many months the Force has been marching, and from the excellent system of this able Officer, the Troops were furnished without delay with all their customary supplies at the conclusion of the contest.

I am very much indebted to Major Barrow, Commissary of Ordnance, whose duties have been most arduous, but who has performed them with the utmost efficiency; he was with me throughout the day, and of much service to me.

To Major Abbot, of the Bengal Infantry, who, with the Troops of the Chirkarree Rajah, protected my baggage and a lengthened Siege Train, and brought all safely into Camp, my best thanks are due.

The arrangements of the Medical Department were excellent, and my thanks are due to Superintending Surgeon Davidson, and Field Surgeon Macfarlane.

I enclose a List of Killed and Wounded.

Camp Banda, 20th April 1858.

SIR,

I BEG leave prominently to bring to your notice, the gallant conduct of Captain Macintire, and his Squadron of Hyderabad Cavalry, which formed part of the Advanced Guard I had the honor to command in the action which took place yesterday morning.

On approaching within six hundred yards of the Enemy's position, I formed my Troops into line, and placed Captain Macintire's Rissallah on the right. After advancing a short distance, I found that one or two of the Enemy's Guns were posted so as to enfilade the Infantry as they advanced. I therefore ordered Captain Macintire to charge the Guns, which was done in most gallant style. The ground to be got over was most difficult for Cavalry, being intersected with deep nullahs filled with the Enemy's Infantry.

I consider this charge enabled the Infantry to reach the Enemy, who were at least 6,000 strong, with comparatively trifling loss.

The whole of the Guard behaved with the greatest gallantry on this occasion.

I remain, Sir,

FROM

BRIGADIER W. H. MILLER,
Comdg. Arty. Brigade S. F. Force.

TO

THE ASSISTANT. ADJT. GENL.,
Saugor Field Division.
Camp Banda, 20th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith a Return of Casualties in the Artillery Brigade under my Command, at the battle of Banda yesterday.

2. It will be observed, that these are providentially very small, a subject both of astonishment and congratulation, considering the length of time we were under fire, and the obstinate resistance of the Enemy, whilst defending their first position, where their Artillery was chiefly brought into play against us, and which was both well and rapidly served, although fortunately for us, their range was generally short probably owing to the inferiority of their powder.

3. It is a source of no slight gratification to me, to bring particularly to the Major-General's notice, the admirable conduct of the whole of the Native portion of the Artillery, affording as it did the most ample proof of their attachment to the service, and fidelity to the State. Nothing could be finer than the way in which the Native Troop of Horse Artillery, under Major Brice, emulated the cheerfulness, alacrity, and cool courage of the gallant comrades of the European Troop under Major Mein.

4. It is not very often, I believe that opportunities offer to Artillerymen of distinguishing themselves in any line other than their own, but some such having presented themselves yesterday, were eagerly laid hold of by Officers and Men. Major Lavie cut down one Gunner, and disarmed another flying from one of the Enemy's Guns taken; Major Barrow and Lieutenant Hennegan, gallantly supported by Lieutenant Blunt, of Her Majesty's 12th Royal Lancers, with a few of his Men captured another Gun; Serjeant-Major Dinwiddie, F. Troop; and Serjeant Alford D. Troop Horse Artillery, (my Orderly Serjeant) cut down several of the Enemy during the action and the Major-General himself, I believe, witnessed the daring manner in which a Gunner of the A. Troop Horse Artillery, (Michael Carroll, General No. 4054) went in on a Mutineer, who was fighting with the resolution of despair, and had for some time kept several Men, both Europeans and Natives, at bay.

5. I cannot help wishing, that Captain Palmer's fine Company of the Royal Artillery, had had more opportunity of distinguishing themselves, but the effect on the Enemy of the fire they did open from the 18-Pounders and 8-inch Howitzers, was most marked and did them much credit.

6. The conduct during the action of every Officer and Man under my order, merits my unqualified approval and highest admiration; but I would beg leave to bring more prominently to the favorable notice of Major-General Whitlock, the names of the following Officers, viz.:—Major Lavie, Commanding Madras Artillery Division; Major Brice, Commanding F. Troop, and Major Mein, Commanding A. Troop, Madras Horse Artillery; Captain Palmer, Commanding Royal Artillery; Lieutenant Pope, Commanding No. 1 Madras Horse Field Battery; Brevet-Captain Holmes, and Lieutenant Hennegan, Commanding Detachments of their respective Troops of Horse Artillery with the advance; Major Barrow, Commissary of Ordnance, and Brevet-Captain Harrison, acting as my Brigade Major, for that excellent Officer Captain Gosling unfortunately laid up at present with small-pox.

7. The zeal, kindness and attention of the different Medical Officers of the Brigade, Doctor Macfarlane, Field Surgeon, Assistant Surgeons, Allen and Dunman, of the Madras Horse Artillery, and Assistant Surgeon Webb, of the Royal Artillery, were most conspicuous, and as such well deserve especial mention being made of them.

Camp Bandah, 20th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform you, for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Division, that the Rissallah and a Troop of the 12th Lancers, were detached with the Advanced Guard, the remainder of the Brigade forming the main column, when the Enemy's Artillery opened fire, (after crossing the dry bed of a river) I advanced the remainder of the Lancers in Column of Troops, when I saw the Rissallah charging the left flank of the Enemy's position, owing to the bad ground which was greatly intersected by deep nullahs, the Lancers had to cross in single files, the Rissallah having been temporarily checked by an unexpected fire of grape and musketry from a nullah 20 yards off; before I could bring the Lancers up to support them, they suffered severely. I immediately formed line, and charged the Enemy who did not stand, but dispersed all over the country. The Lancers followed them up for about four miles to the river Kane, cutting up about three hundred of them. I then deemed it advisable to re-assemble them, and bring them back to the main column. The Troop of Lancers attached to the Advanced Guard, charged the Enemy's right flank and took Gun.

When we advanced upon the Enemy's second position, I detached a Troop of Lancers to protect the Artillery on our left flank, and a Troop of the Rissallah, the Artillery on the right flank. When the heights were gained, the 12th Lancers advanced, and took a large brass Gun pursuing the Enemy, who were in full retreat, (here Brigadier Miller was cut down, whose life was saved by Private Thomas Elliss, 12th Lancers, who speared the Rebel. The retreat of the Enemy was covered by some heavy Guns on the left of the Fort.

I then in concert with the Officer Commanding the European Horse Artillery, (the fire of the Enemy being very heavy, and our Guns not being able to tell upon them,) deemed it advisable to retire out of range, and wait until the heavy Guns and main column came up.

I beg to bring to the favourable notice of the Major-General, Captain Prior, Commanding the 12th Lancers, and Captain Macintire, Commanding the 2nd Hyderabad Irregular Horse who gave me every assistance by strictly carrying out my orders: also my Brigade Major, Lieutenant Roe, 12th Lancers, who afforded me every help in conveying orders with rapidity.

A Nominal Roll of Killed and Wounded is transmitted herewith.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter, No. 2173, dated the 21st Ultimo, on the subject of Notices of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants sent to your Office.

2. It appears that your Office makes deductions on account of Leave of Absence only from the Salaries of those Uncovenanted Servants who receive their appointments direct from Government; but that in all cases in which Clerks and other Ministerial Officers are allowed Leave of Absence, the Head of the Department or Office in which they are employed is left to make the deductions, your Office simply passing the Salary Abstract of such Establishment, without taking cognizance of the deductions made therein by the Head of the Department or Office, provided the Rule laid down in the Financial Resolution of the 18th December 1843 is not infringed.

3. In reply, I am desired to inform you, that the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the practice of your Office is incorrect. The Rules of the 22nd February 1856, he observes, are applicable to "All Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government who may be in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards," and it seems to His Lordship in Council that your Office ought invariably to make the deductions provided for in the Rules, in every case in which Leave is granted to such Officers under the rules, whether it be granted by Government, or by Officers to whom power to act upon the Rules may have been delegated by Government.

4. In respect to Officers drawing Salaries of less than Rupees 100 a month, it has been ruled in the Financial Resolution of the 6th February 1857, that the Heads of Offices should, in granting Leave, be guided by the spirit of the Rules prescribed for those servants who are in the receipt of Salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards, and that all cases in which Leave is granted to Uncovenanted Servants whose Salaries are less than Rupees 100 per month, shall be reported to the Civil Auditor and the Military Auditor General, respectively, in the manner prescribed in the Orders of the 25th July last; viz. that the Auditors should be furnished, on the 1st May in each year, with "An Annual Return showing the Leave of Absence granted during the year (preceding), under the new Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, to those Uncovenanted Servants whose Leave might not have been notified in the Gazette."

MONTHLY STATEMENT of Leave of Absence granted to Uncovenanted Servants drawing more than Rupees 10 per Mensem, for the Month of 185

Name of Absentee.	Office held by Absentee.	Monthly Salary of Absentee.	Section of Rules under which Leave is granted, or nature of Leave.	Period of Leave.	Amount of deduction from Salary. Y. Z.	Moonshee	40 0 0	Sick Leave	One Month, viz., March 1859	20 0 0	None	0 0 0	20 0 0

5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Offices of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported monthly (instead of annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin; the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all Absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of Rupees 100 a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than Rupees 100, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,
